

THANK YOU

By Gwen Williams

My journey to the Falconry will be one of pride
Memories will last forever of fear put aside
I went in a frightened woman who was weak not strong
But holding and trusting the birds of prey did not take me long

My trust of people came on easier to me
My fear of life went from sad to happy
I now have strength, courage, and trust
The birds of prey is a definite must.

All you will need is patience and the rest will flow
Then you will have found confidence that you didn't know
Imagine an African Eagle, the Barn Owl, and Hawks
Imagine being in the forest the adventure and walks.

The trust I have to hold, to feed, and to fly
The most amazing beautiful birds of prey
I have done things that I wouldn't have dared
Now I am stronger because somebody cared.

I thank you all for the lessons I've taken on My life will be better from now on
The trust I built, the confidence grew
All of this is because of all of you.
